Dear Hiring Manager:

Please accept this letter and my resume to express my interest in the position of graphic design in your company.

My name is Yeil shin, I've recently graduated from Vancouver Career College. I have received my education in graphic design and technology. At present, I am seeking to find a position in a reputed organization where I can leverage my learnings and further enhance my skills as a graphic designer.

I've worked in a pharmaceutical retail for 4 years as a sales associate and a shift supervisor. I've gained a lot of knowledge and experience working in a diverse and talented team in this company.

I consider myself to be a friendly, efficient and enthusiastic worker and I feel I am suitable for this role in this organization.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my application. I am available for contact and interview at any time. For any inquiries, please call 604-780-3761 or email shinbowl99@hotmail.com.

Sincerely,

Yeil shin
